DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 6-8 and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brazdo [Pat. No. 3,915,309] in view of Torrez [Pat. No. 2,957,973].

Brazdo teaches a magazine-like carrier device comprising an elongated body with plural parallel v-shaped channels (Figure 1, #36), plural parallel partitions affixed to the body forming pockets (Figure 1, #25, 27, 29), an opening angle of the partitions of substantially 0° (Figure 2, #25, 27, 29), the device having a stackable construction capable of being stacked in an off-set manner by resting the v-shaped channels of on rack (#36) onto the ledges of the bottom rack (#16 & 42), and the partitions inherently being "affixed flexibly" due to their thin plastic construction (column 5, lines 20-40). Phrases such as "for handling and heat treating a plurality of rectangular bags or film packs" and "wherein the width of the carrier device substantially corresponds to the longest dimension of the bags or film packs to be received" are merely preferred methods of using the claimed apparatus. Brazdo does not recite two partitions between any two adjacent channels. Torrez teaches a rack comprising two partitions between any two adjacent channels (Figure 7). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to incorporate the partition structure of Torrez into the invention of Brazdo since both are directed to rack devices, since Brazdo already included partitions, since this type of partition structure was commonly used in the art as shown by Torrez, and since this partition structure would permit greater flexibility in the use of the rack of Brazdo by permitting greater separation between the items to be held and greater room for flexible expansion of the pockets of Brazdo to accommodate larger items.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. McPhee [Pat. No. 4,782,953], Burrows [Pat. No. 6,116,153], and LaMaster et al [Pat. No. 7,159,510] teach rack devices.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
